

The background image shows a modern, multi-story building with a facade of dark wood and large glass windows. In the foreground, there is a courtyard with several young trees, some of which are in bloom with white flowers. A small pond or water feature is visible in the lower part of the image. The sky is blue with some white clouds.

Gunnar Schotta, Molecular Biology:

Regulation of endogenous retroviruses

Maria Spletter, Physiological Chemistry:

Tuned to perform: the regulation of alternative splicing in muscle development

The Green Initiative, BMC:

BMC goes green

BMC Science Seasons

March 16, 2020: 13:00 – 14:00 h Small Lecture Hall, BMC